

Provider	Service	Funder/commissioner		Description	Support
Clearsprings	AAS (Asylum Accommodation Support Transformation)	Home Office		Provide accommodation and support for asylum seekers during period in which their asylum application is considered
LiveWell SouthWest	Asylum Seeker and Refugee (ASR) Service Mental Health	NHS Devon CCG		Initial assessment and intervention of ASR Mental Health needs. Facilitate access into appropriate health services. Mental health interventions using an eclectic approach incorporating health promotion activities to improve mental well-being.
LiveWell SouthWest	Asylum seekers and refugee health screening programme	NHS Devon CCG		comprehensive health and wellbeing screen for all ASR dispersed to Plymouth	Identify physical, mental health needs and/or risk factors and liaise with the appropriate healthcare services to ensure these needs are met; advise with guidance in GP registration
The 4 providers below	Refugee Integration Support Service - is a commissioned service delivered by a partnership between the 4 providers listed below, plus in past two years British Red Cross (BRC) have also been funded to deliver some immigration advice supports. Service supports refugees as part of special resettlement programmes and also once they have received a positive asylum decision, holistic and strengths based support provided to ASR communities; also includes community cohesion, cultural competencies support
PATH	Refugee Integration and Support Service	PCC/Home office		Is the lead contractor with PCC to deliver the RIS service; housing worker accesses private rented accommodation for those using the service	Easy let housing worker and manager for RIS
PDREC		NHS Devon CCG		Provide advocacy and support for Refugees who have settled in Plymouth, but still need additional support around a wide variety of issues including, race hate crime, domestic abuse, health, benefit and debt support, housing, and education.	Also deliver refugee and asylum seeker awareness training, co-ordinates community events including Respect Festival, runs women's groups, etc.
START		PCC/Home Office		Support refugees as part of special resettlement programmes and also once they have received a positive asylum decision to secure housing, full rights and welfare benefits entitled to, supporting integration into local community;
Open Door Languages School (ODILS)		PCC/Home Office		Provide English for Speakers of Other Languages classes	12 months, level of support as required by learner with the aim of achieving sufficient competence to deal with mainstream service providers without the aid of an interpreter.

Provider	Funder	Description
Plymouth Refugee Opportunities Project	Home Office via a Social Impact Bond (social investor is Bridges Outcomes Partnership). This is an outcomes passed payment model.	This project has been funded by the Home Office Refugee Transitions Outcomes Fund. There are 3 delivery partners (ODILS, START and Plymouth Hope) who are supported by Bridges Outcomes Partnership through a social impact bond. Plymouth City Council have a strategic and advisory role. The funding will support approx. 80 refugees between September 2021 to March 2024. The support offered will be a holistic offer of housing, integration and employment.
British Red Cross	Home Office	Provides new arrivals with a local induction of the City; an International Tracing and Messaging Service and Family Reunion joint services with Plymouth University's Law Clinic.
Devon & Cornwall Refugee Support (DCRS)	Big Lottery, Plymouth University, donators	Work mainly with asylum seekers who are referred to START once receive status; only work they do with refugees is support with post status immigration applications such as travel documents and citizenship applications
Open Door Languages(ODILS)	SFA/VLN	Provide English for Speakers of Other Languages classes
Plymouth Hope	Donators; lottery,	Focuses on younger asylum seekers and refugees, running health and wellbeing sessions. Support for young people and parents with homework. Running a buddying 'asylum guide' scheme for asylum seekers of all ages.
Migrant Legal Project	Legal services Commission max 150 cases.	Only local immigration law firm offering legally aided casework, also offer private immigration advice
Law Clinic, University of Plymouth	None, pro bono.	Family reunion, exceptional case funding, other miscellaneous legal issues
Diversity Business Incubator	PCC, Donators, private work	Support for refugees who wish to start a business or become self-employed

Refugee and Asylum Seeker Services in the Eastern Locality:

- Devon County Council Resettlement Team - this isn't a public facing team as such, they do the back office/coordination work around resettlement (and in some instances have provided casework support for families who have been resettled in Devon e.g. through the Syrian Refugee Scheme) and tend to be linked in with professionals/services rather than taking direct phone calls from people.
- Hikmat <https://www.hikmatdevon.co.uk/> and Seachange <https://www.westbank.org.uk/budleigh-salterton> are grant funded to provide the wellbeing "helpdesk" 3 days per week within the 2 Refugee Bridging Hotels in the Eastern Locality
- Refugee Support Devon (Exeter based office) - <https://refugeesupportdevon.org.uk/> is the main one to go for help in Exeter. They have staff and volunteers who can advise on claims for asylum; support resettlement and they also have some volunteer ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) teachers

OFFICIAL

- St Sidwell's Centre in Exeter <https://stsidwells.org.uk/> is the main 3rd sector ESOL provider in Devon. They have a lot of expertise and over 30 qualified teachers on their volunteer list. They run 7 free classes every week in Exeter but have also worked in Exmouth (they run all the ESOL at the hotel in Exmouth), Honiton and other parts of Devon. They also offer volunteering and work-experience opportunities for refugees & asylum seekers.
- Exeter College and our own adult learning provider, Learn Devon, also have ESOL departments.
- Multilingua Devon <https://www.multilinguadevon.co.uk/> offer community interpreting and translation services across the whole of Devon and Torbay. They have a network of local interpreters (all trained) in more than 80 languages.
- Babcock's EMTAS (Ethnic Minority and Traveller Achievement Service) <https://www.babcockldp.co.uk/disadvantaged-vulnerable-learners/emtas> offers support for getting children from refugee/asylum seeking families into schools.
- CISCO - (Credton International Social and Cultural Organisation) - is a small community group in Credton which offers drop-in advice sessions, social activities, English conversation classes.
- Inclusive Exeter - <https://www.inclusiveexeter.org/> - Exeter based as the name implies, offer weekly drop-in advice sessions (held at Exeter Mosque), sports and exercise sessions.